IRISE-AMERICAN CITIZENS.

A Good Meeting Held at the Armory Last Night. In pursuance to a call a meeting of Irish-American citizens was held at Gar-field hall last night. The meeting was a very enthusiastic one. It was composed of Irish-American citizens of all parties and who held the candidacy of Colonel Murdock dear to them. Mayor John B. Carey was present and was called upon to preside over the meeting. Upon taking the chair Mr. Carey stated that pursuance to the call by the Irish-American citizens they had met, The object of the meeting was to express the wish of the Irish-American citizens for the nomination of Colonel Murdock. "We came here," he said, "to devise means by which we can aid and assist in nominating Colonel Murdock for governor at Topeka, the coming week. For myself, continued Mr. Carey, I can say I have known our favorite for governor since 1874 and I have always found him the friend of the poor. He has never in any manner over uttered in his paper or otherwise one single unkind word toward the Irish-American citizens. He is our fraend, and we will stay by him. He treats every man slike and every man just and fair. The Irish-American never had a better friend than Colonel M. M. Murdock. The mayor continued for some time and grew more and more eloquent as he proceeded. He concluded by intro-ducing Mr. D. C. Dwyer. The mayor was frequently applauded and cheered. Mr. Dwyer is also a good speaker and spoke very interestingly for about fifteen minutes. It did not seem that long. as he held the audience spell-bound. He asked his brothers what the requisites of the office were: is he competent? is he honest? and is be our friend? If so, he is our man. Mr. Dwyer said that be had known Colonel Murdock for many years, and had always found him a true friend of the Irish-American citizen. He knew that the meeting was composed of Republicans and Democrats, and that they had assembled te do honor to the man who has We know him, said he, and we can de-

Colonel Murdock was their friend and this demonstration of the Irish-Americans showed that they would stand by their friend in this case. He said he was glad to see the sentiment rupressed by the Irish-American citizens of Wichita. Mr. Clement dweit upon the loyality of the Irish race and their love of home and country. Whenever duty called them they would respond as a man, and if the they would respond the necessary, shed their life blood for their country. They are eminently patriotic. Mr. Clement concluded amid cheers and upon a motion, the meeting adjourned till next Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock.

That they would ride over all opposition and take the reins of government on the 4th day of next March, he had not a doubt, This was the last speaker and the ratification was declared over. Good feeling prevailed and it might be called a success.

The Wichita Musical club held a busiess meeting one day during the past week at the music rooms of Barnard Newcomb. This club has now a membership of about sixty ladies and is steadily grow ing. The objects of the club is to cultivate a taste for higher grades of music and to educate the people to a higher standard. Mrs. Lyeth, the president of the club, and Miss Mills, the secretary, are efficient and faithful workers and under the very able directorship of Mrs. Garst, the club is fast achieving success. Mrs. Garst is the prime mover in the scheme. She has labored in cessantly, and to her is due the credit of the organization of this club. It is an enterprise which all frends and lovers of music should encourage. The ladies meet once, and sometimes more than once, each week for practice. They already show great improvement and render some very difficult music very creditably. RESOLUTIONS. We the Republicans of Sedgwick county cordially endorse the platform adopted by the Minneapolis convention as a state-ment of the principles cherished by every loyal member of the Republican party. We reitsrate and re-caphathize the de-clarations of the Republicans of this county in 1800 and again in 1891 upon the sub-ject of freight rates. We insist that the great transportation companies which derive their corporate existence from Kansas laws, and their fluancial existence from Kansas trade and commerce, owe to the people of Kansas fair, equitable and honest treatment in the matter of freight rates; and we denounce the present unjust and opressive discrimination in the adjustment of such rates whereby the merchants, shippers and consumers of other states are enriched at the expense and to the injury of the Chicago convention and to give an anyone must be very shallow in the upper story who would attempt so dangerous an expression of the standard bearers of the Democratic party, who he prophesied would be elected in November as president and vice president of the United States.

State Senator.

"According to the order of business adopted the nomination for state senator is now in order. When chairman made the above statement there arose a murmur all over the hall, which swelled until the noise drowned out the merry ring of the president's gavel. In a short time, however, quiet was restored and John Hume arose and nominated W. S. Morris. Captain John Wallace placed Senator Bentaling John Wallace Placed Frequent cheering interrupted the reading | the nomination unanimous, which carried. When the result was announced a great shout went up from nearly every throat in the ball. Cheers were given, and in vain vain did Chairman Marble call for silence. Senator Bentley was called to the platform and accepted the nomination short speech. He said: "I expect to be the next senator from this great county. I am under special obligations to my many friends for their kindness and their loyalty in this canvass. COUNTY ATTORNEY.

When the nominations for county attorneywere made the following candidates were brought out: John W. Adams, Joe Henley and John Davis. Mr. Henley immediately arose and withdrew his name. This left the contest between Adams and Davis. The first ballot nominated, the vote being, Adams 87, Davis 103, The nomination was made unanimous.

Mr. Davis responded with a good and short speech. Mr. Adams mounted the platform and pledged his hearty support

PROBATE JUDGE

The nomination of a candidate for probate judge was next in order. Mr. Hume nominated G. W. C. Jones: Douglas Don-nelly placed Judge Buckner in nomina-toin, and George W. Adams presented the name of N. F. Natzger. The first ballot decided the fate of the candidates and stood: Jones 18; Buckner 71; Naftzger 108. Mr. Naftzger was declared the nominee The nomination was made unanimous. He was called to the floor and made the con vention a short speech, thanking them. Judge Buckner mounted the platform and pledged his loyal support.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION J. S. Carson and B. L. Alexander of Valley Center were the candidates before the convention for superintendent of public instruction. Before a ballot was taken Mr. Alexander asked for recognition and stated in a few well chosen words that owing to circumstances, he did not wish to allow his name to come before the convention. He moved to suspend the rules and nominate Mr. Carson by acclamation. Mr. Carson made a short speech which was full of life and good sentiment. On motion of Mr. Hume, the following resolution was adonted:

Resolved. That it is the sense of this convention that members of the legislature should accept no free passes from railroad companies.

The convention then adjourned after

Sixty-Seventa District. The Republicans of the Sixty-seventh representative district met in the armory after the county convention yesterday afternoon and nominated a candidate for representative of that district. The meet ing was called to order by Mr. J. D. Caldwell. Mr. Levi Roach was made tempora ry chairman. Mr. W. D. McCormick was elected permanent chairman and took his seat at once. Mr. Frank Dunkin was elected secretary. A committee of three, on credentials were appointed by Chair man McCormick. The committee consisted of Levi Roach, J. C. Redfield and Ira Jackson, who in a short time made their report. All the delegates were recognized. Nominations were then declared in order and the following gentlemen were brought forward: Colonel M. Stewart, A. J. Weaver and J. R. H. King.

The first ballot nominated and stood: Stewart, 32; Weaver, 30; King, 1. The nomination was made unanimous, after which the convention adjourned.

The meeting was called to order imme diately after the adjournment of the county convention. Mr. Hume moved that organization be dispensed with and that Hon. George L. Douglas be nominated, to succeed himself, by acclamation.

The vote was a rousing cheer, and Mr. Douglas was declared nominated. He made a rousing speech and was frequently interrupted by cheers.

HERMAN & HESS.

Sell clothing for Men and Boys. Men's Furnishings, Hats, and Fine Shoes cheaper-quality considered-than any other firm in Kansas. Let's make the assertion more sweeping and say cheaper than any in the known world. It takes "nerve" and lots of it to do business the H. & H. way--that is under a position guarantee that every article bought from H. & H. will give the buyer satisfaction or H. & H. will refund the money.

Your benefitted by obtaining your goods at their actual intrinsic value regardless of appearance.

We're benefittey by the continuation of your patronage and the profit we make, a profit based on true worth, not looks. Cut prices which is mostly newspaper talk, generally leads to the substitution of worthless imitations. We don't have to resort to sucn subterfages to obtain and retain trade. Our prices are right first, last, and all the time-because every time you spend a dollar with us we give you one hundred cents in value. We've said the same thing before and we'll say it ever so many times again, for it's the truth and will bear repetition, and we want you to learn it so that it will be not a memory. but an ever present fact, something tangible that is hourly proven by your own experience.
